The World's Fair Amendments.

Constitutional Amendments 4 and 5 relate to the Louisiana Purchase Centennial Exposition to be held in 1903, and the earnest cooperation of all interested in the welfare of the State is asked to secure their passage. You are asked to vote for the amendments yourself and to bring the matter before the attention of the people at all meetings you attend.

Amendment No. 4 authorizes St. Louis to issue $5,000,000 in city bonds in aid of the Fair. This can in no way affect state taxes.

Amendment No. 5 authorizes the legislature to appropriate from the sinking fund a sum not exceeding $1,000,000 for State exhibit. This appropriation will not come out of the current revenue and will not increase taxation.

The World's Fair will attract millions of dollars of capital to Missouri and benefit all classes alike. It cannot be held unless these amendments carry.

The amendments were indorsed by the State Conventions of both parties.
